

You are to bring a flyer to the briefing. Document it prior to the meeting.
/The briefing and the launch of the assignment is to be done in a circle/

You are to bring a stamp to the briefing. Document it prior to the meeting.
/Each participant hands a piece of printed matter to another student to their right/

You are to bring a postcard to the briefing. Document it prior to the meeting.
/A student is to come up with a designed piece of printed matter in the shape and format they are given, but with the content of the print they brought.
Example: a person brought a stamp and was given an A3 poster promoting a festival, therefore they are to design a poster-sized-and-shaped artefact but with the content of the stamp/

You are to bring an A3 poster to the briefing. Document it prior to the meeting.
/After the artefacts are designed and printed, people gather in the circle again and exchange the new artefacts. Example: A person with a poster-shaped stamp gets an envelope-shaped ad for the circus show, therefore they are to design an envelope-shaped print with a content of the stamp/

You are to bring a fruit sticker to the briefing. Document it prior to the meeting.
/The procedure does not end until the circle is complete and each participant gets the artefact in the format they brought in/
